November Newsletter 2024

Leadership: When we read Scripture, we see tales of men and women who were called empowered and enabled to lead. They were imperfect, because like you and me they were growing in God's grace to become the leaders God was calling them to be. There has to be room for everyone who serves in ministry to mature and become what God sees in them that we might not see.

Consider what Paul says about who God chooses...

26 Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. 27 But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. 28 He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things--and the things that are not--to nullify the things that are, 29 so that no one may boast before him. 30 It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God--that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption. ~ 1 Corinthians 1:26 - 30

Like most churches, the church in Corinth needed some guidance, correcting, and leading in some areas where they were missing the mark. There were those who were making communion something so much less than what God intended it to be, they were not taking an honest look at the life that they were living and the sin they needed to confess before partaking of the Lord's Supper. There was disunity in the church as some claimed to follow Paul, while another claimed to follow Cephas, and still another said they followed Apollos, while another contended that they followed Christ (1 Cor. 1:10 – 12). How I pray each of us are following Jesus.

Because church can get messy, I want to share with you some thoughts. As we move forward with the construction of our new church building know that your leaders are often stepping out of their comfort zone, trusting God, and seeking to do this thing God is calling them to do that most have never done. Your leaders are men and women of prayer who in all things are seeking God's will, guidance, and direction. None of us as leaders are perfect, but by the grace of God we have stepped up to do the things He has for us to do.

Each of us have a role in what God is doing in building His church. Everyone of us should be praying daily for our leaders and the daunting task that has been set before them. Then of course we should be giving to support the construction of the building as well as work that needs to be done in the house that will become church offices and rooms that will be transformed into classrooms where children and youth can be served. When opportunities arise for us to be engaged in reaching out to a new community, embrace that opportunity, and serve as the hands, feet, and heart of Jesus. God's building His church, and He has chosen to do so through everyday ordinary people like you and me.

The garage at the house at Faircrest will become the youth room. Our youth program is the fastest growing area of ministry in our church. These young people are learning, maturing, and becoming young people who God will use to advance His kingdom. When you have an opportunity to support the youth ministry in our church, in some ways do it. I say this as one who is setting the example, I have been heavily involved in the youth group since I have become your pastor. Soon I will be going to the state youth convention with the kids, because they needed a man to chaperone the boys – I may have to sleep on the floor in the hotel room, and I am willing to do that because I love these kids and I want to see them come to faith, grow in God's grace, and become a bigger part of God's church. May we be a light in the darkness, a witness to His glory, and a beacon of hope as we share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

BRYAN CARTER

Sundays from 5:30-7PM

Joseph is one of the most inspiring figures in the Old Testament. Everything he endured was for a purpose, his success came from the Lord, and even the most devastating events in his past were used to accomplish God's purposes. The exciting news is that God works in our lives the same way he worked in Joseph's. In this six-session series, Pastor Bryan Carter will trace the themes of purpose and faithfulness through the life of Joseph, teaching us how to identify and live in our God-given purpose. God will do far more than we could hope or imagine. Today, he is calling us to be people of purpose.
